DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1951, wish to dedicate this, the fourth edition of the ODONIAN to Mrs. Freed, who has proved to be a faithful teacher, loyal friend, and constant help to us in our high school years. Mrs. Freed gave our class a good start when she taught us English in our Freshmen year. Now that we are leaving, we are proud to say "Thank you, you helped us start."

FOREWORD

In this, the fourth edition of the Odonian, we have tried to make not only a treasured memoir for the Class of 1951, but we also have sought to express in it the atmosphere of our school life.

We owe the business men who have helped us, a vote of thanks, for without their advertising this book would not be possible. We hope that you will enjoy this copy of the Odonian and regard it as a dollar well invested in memory of our school life at Odon High.

It is our desire that next year's Seniors will again publish an Odonian, and to them we entrust this job.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1951

In the school year of 1939-40, our first grade of the Odon elementary school was composed of forty-six little girls and boys. We were the usual type of beginners and seemed to have all sorts of difficulty in learning the names of our classmates. This was easily explained, however, as many of us had never seen each other before that time.

We made progress through the first eight grades with only the expected difficulties, and we were sure that more than a few of our teachers developed several headaches and gray hairs because of our antics. At the conclusion of our grade school education, we participated in an elementary school graduation exercise. We hope that the school officials were not too glad to get rid of us.

We entered the Freshman class of the Odon-Madison Township high school in the year 1947 with fifty members. This number included not only our classmates from grade school days but also new ones from Shiloh and Raglesville. We selected Mrs. Mary Jo Poindexter as our sponsor and elected the following officers: President, Sammy Kemp; Vice-President, Joe Padgett; Secretary, Nancy Stickles; Treasurer, Vera Miller. Our candidates in the King and Queen contest of the school carnival were Buddy Bray and Nancy Stickles. We were surprised, but greatly pleased to see them crowned, as our class was declared the winner.

During our Sophomore year, our enrollment dropped to forty-two students. Our sponsor was Mr. Jensen and officers selected were: President, Doris Allison; vice-president, Vera Miller; secretary, Mary Alice Carpenter; and treasurer, Hinda Aishe.

By the time we were Juniors there were only thirty three of us. We welcomed two new members, Ray Maust and Dick Streepy. Mrs. Pate was our sponsor during that year and we presented the play, "Strictly Formal." Our prom and reception for the Seniors was very successful and was an occasion we shall always be happy to keep in mind.

Our class officers were: President, Bill Seneff; vice-president, Robert Manning; secretary, Hilda Aishe; and treasurer, Mary Alice Carpenter. Again our candidates, Norman Sims and Mary Alice Carpenter, were crowned the King and Queen of the school carnival. During this year we also received our class rings.

We entered the school year of 1950-51 with thirty-one members of our group still enrolled. Our sponsor was Mr. Jensen and our officers were: President, Richard Poindexter; vice-president, Norman Sims; secretary, Vonda Beasley; treasurer, Hilda Aishe, and class reporter, Rose Williams. During this year we lost Betty Melton, Dwight Taylor, and Mary Westmoreland.

Our class play, "Thank You, Mr. Parker" was well received by an enthusiastic audience. Some of our girls pretended to enjoy playing the parts of old maids. During our Style Show, Al Callahan looked like a second Paul Bunyan and Doris and Mary Alice were beautiful, old fashioned bathing beauties.

We have taken one Senior trip at present to Indiana Central College; but we also plan to attend the Indaina State Legislature. During Senior Week we shall make several other educational visits.

Our usual Senior preparations have been completed and we are now anxiously awaiting the day of graduation exercises in the new school gymnasium. Our gift to the school was a new, electric score board which will add to the enjoyment of all who attend our basketball games.

We have given you some of the happenings which we consider the most important during our school years. We wish to express our thanks to all who have helped in making our graduation possible.

TWENTY A MINUTE

Will Whizz (in typing class): How's your speed coming along, Helen?

Helen: Fine. I can make twenty mistakes a minute.

CORRECT

Mother: Johnny, you must never put off 'till tomorrow what you can do today.

Johnny: Okay, Mom, let's finish that apple pie.

Mrs. Jensen: "Should I take Carl to the zoo tomorrow?"

Mr. Jensen: "Absolutely not, if the zoo wants him, let 'em come and get him."

Dick Streepy and Shirley Guthrie were driving to the fair.

Said Shirley: My doesn't that popcorn smell good?

And Dick replied: Yeath, sure does, I'll drive closer so you can smell it better.

SENIOR PROPHECY

As I was walking down Main street one bright and sunny day, I saw a great big wooden box not very far away. I went over to open it up and much to my surprise, I discovered the Senior prophecy right before my eyes. Some of this may be a little far fetched from what we remember the Seniors of '51 as being when they were in high school, but as you know, time changes everything. I quote as I read it from the paper.

Quite a few of our class members are married:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manning are living on the outskirts of Odon. Robert has two theaters in Odon and several more scattered over the state.

Mrs. Rosalie Rainy, (Holland to us) is now living in Washington, Indiana, where her husband is Judge of the Circuit Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor, (formerly Sue Clark) are now living in Indianapolis. Sue has recently been voted the "wife of the year."

Bobbie Pershing finally got her man. They are now living in Bedford. Bobbie's housework and raising little "Roaches" keeps her pretty busy.

Richard Poindexter and wife, Nancy, now have a funeral establishment in Odon. Mr. Poindexter's partner in the business is his old classmate, Richard Streepy. Streepy is the embalmer.

Rose Williams is now in South Dakota; she is a psychiatrist and owner of the "Parkaway" motel. Among many other prominent people, she has looked into the brain of the President of the United States.

Joan Correll is now in Colorado, living on a dude ranch. She raises saddle horses. Her hobby is raising white mice for atomic research.

Donald Ellis now has a printing establishment all his own; he is also half owner of the Odon Journal. He has been asked several times to go to congress to be a government printer of speeches for congressmen.

Norman Sims is owner of the famous "Sims Modeling Salon" in New York. He is pretty well satisfied now because he has Mary Alice Carpenter as his number one model.

Nancy Courtney is a bookkeeper for the F. B. I., in Washington, D. C. She has been selected Miss FBI of the year.

Bill Seneff, after graduating from Rose Poly, is a math teacher in good old Odon high. He collects bugs as a hobby and is said to be quite "Buggy".

Albert Callahan, believe it or not, finally graduated from Ohio State and is a very prominent veterinarian in Middletown, Ohio.

Almeda Brummett is still a farm girl. She and her husband, Mr. Ivis Myers, are now living on a large farm south of Odon.

Charles Bunch, M. D., is the bachelor of our class, but he is doing rather well for himself. He has his office in the Odon Clinic and has as his nurse, none other than our very good friend, Joy Overton.

Almeda Byrer, after trying secretary work for quite some time, has finally settled down to working in one of Odon's large nurseries, raising all kinds of pine trees.

Jim Malone is owner of a large farm south of Plainville, and is starting to drill the third oil well on his farm.

John Dee York can be found in Gary, Indiana, working as an arc welder in the steel mills. John says there's only one thing he can't weld, his wife's opinions.

Lewis Arthur is working at the International Harvester as a farm machinery demonstrator. He was voted top plow salesman of the United States and won a trip abroad as a prize.

Vonda Beasley finally got herself a job. She is back in Macomb, Illinois, working as a bookkeeper in her brother-in-law's garage. She was selected as "Miss Grease Monkey of the year" by her co-workers.

Hilda Aishe, after working at Crane for several years, has decided to return to school and complete her education. She is a student at Indiana University. She is majoring in dress designing.

Leroy Tarvin can't make enough money on one job so he has two. He works as a mechanical engineer in the day and is on the Odon police force at night. He just caught his first crook, who had robbed the Odon Bank of over a million dollars.

Doris Allison, after graduating with high honors at Indiana University where she got her Ph. D. degree, is now playing as star pianist with a large symphony orchestra. They recently opened a two weeks performance in New York.

Way down at the bottom of the page it said "Last, but not least" our very good friend and sponsor, Kenneth Hugo Jensen, better known to all as "Nip" is now retired and has a large estate somewhere in the middlewest.

So this is where the class of "51" is now. We haven't done badly for ourselves, have we? After reading this Prophecy several times I put the paper back in the box and walked on down the street deep in thought of the class of "51".

CLASS WILL OF 1951

We, the Senior Class of '51, who are about to depart from Odon high school, will the following things, which we will not be needing:

To the Juniors, we will our nickname, "The Outlaw Class".

To the Sophomores, we will our winning ways with the teachers.

To the Freshmen, we will our intelligence.

I, Hilda Sue Aishe, will my yell-leading ability to Eva Dee Pershing.

I, Doris Allison, will my ability to catch on to jokes to Jeanie Barnard.

I, Lewis Arthur, will my laugh to Cerald Brinegar.

I, Vonda Beasley, will my pleasing disposition to Mary Ellen Crane.

I, Charles Bunch, will my ability to get along with the girls to Jerry Neiswanger.

I, Almeda Byrer, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Jim Ramsey.

I, Almeda Brummett, will my boy friends to Nancy Sinclair.

I, Albert Callahan, will my rowdiness to Junior Cook.

I, Mary Alice Carpenter, will my drum major's uniform to Karen Abrell.

I, Sue Clark, will my trim figure to Dorothy Dreiman.

I, Joan Correll, will my ability to ride horses to Sue Humerickhouse.

I, Nancy Courtney, will my shyness to Ruth Brummett.

I, Donald Ellis, will my long legs to Bruce Harper.

I, Floretta Harris, will my good typing ability to Janet Foglesong.

I, Rosalie Holland, will my long curly hair to Joyce Hugunin.

I, Dona Humerickhouse, will my quietness to Bob Arney.

I, Jimmy Malone, will my curly hair to Harold Phillips.

I, Robert Manning, will my excuses for being late to school to Harold Williams.

I, Joy Overton, will my ability to get along with Mr. Buechele to Richard Smiley.

I, Barbara Pershing, will my height and figure to Bessie McCarter.

I, Richard Poindexter, will my "line" to Jerry Sibray.

I, Bill Seneff, will my good chemistry grades to Paul McCarter.

I, Norman Sims, will my reckless driving to Melvin Johnson.

I, Nancy Stickles, will my dark complexion and hair to Joan Scott.

I, Richard Streepy, will my false teeth to Jack Byrer.

I, Leroy Tarvin, will my last name to Nancy Humerickhouse.

I, Rose Williams, will my height and big feet to Cora Ann Turocy.

I, John York, will my love for English to Max Sinclair.

In witness thereof, the testators herein have to this, our last will and testament, set their hands and seals this fourth day of May, 1951.

CLASS POEM OF '51

We'll start with Aishe (Hilda that is);
When it comes to English, she'll really a whiz.

Then comes Allison, a gal kinda tall;
If you want a pianist, just give her a call.

A is for Arthur (Louis) he's pretty tall too;
We think he's cute, how about you?

Vonda Beasley is our "Punkie Bell";
A guy in Illinois really thinks she's swell.

Almeda Brummett, a tall, slim gal;
Her heart's desire is to be a good pal.

Another Almeda, (Byrer that is);
Sometimes for fun we call her Liz.

Charles Bunch, our boy in the band;
When he sees a girl he's in dreamland.

Next is Albert Callahan, a pretty good lad;
Try and convince the teachers he isn't bad.

Mary Alice Carpenter, she's really wolf bait;
With Norman or any boy, she'll always rate.

C is for Clark, Sue to us all;
She's now engaged to a guy named Paul.

Another C is for Correll (Joan) to all of us;
She gets all her lessons without a fuss.

Nancy Courtney, cute, neat and sweet;
She's the kind of girl everyone should meet.

Donald Ellis, tries chewing gum in all classes;
We Seniors wonder how he ever passes.

Floretta Harris, who sits around planning;
How she'll share her life with Manning.

Rosalie Holland, who's so very slim;
We wonder what she eats that makes her so trim.

Dona Humerickhouse, a girl with brown hair;
Everyone thinks she's square and fair.

Robert Manning, who sees all the shows;
He makes new friends wherever he goes.

Jim Malone, a quiet lad;
He'll be a farmer just like his dad.

Joy Overton, our Raglesville girl;
When she kisses a boy, he's in a whirl.

P is for Pershing, we know her as Bobbie:
Making love to Don we know is her hobby.

P is for Poindexter, Dick, a nice quiet kid,
For a girl like Nancy, he'd make a high bid.

Bill Seneff, smartest guy in the class;
How does he keep from being caught by a lass.

Norman Sims, captain of the team;
When it comes to girls, he's on the beam.

Nancy Stickles, a girl with black hair;
She and Dick make a pretty good pair.

Next is Streepy, Dick to you and me;
He'll be a dentist, you just wait and see.

Leroy Tarvin, a pretty good guy;
Mrs. Pate doesn't understand how he ever gets by.

Rose Williams, the brain of the class,
We all think she's a pretty nice lass.

Y is for York (John) with dark wavy hair;
When it comes to typing, he just isn't there.

Last but not least, Jensen, our guiding star;
If we but follow, we're sure to go far.

We put two lines together to make them rhyme;
But, gee, did we have an awful time.

Rosalie Holland
Floretta Harris
Robert Manning

SO THAT'S IT

The absent-minded professor was having a physical examination, "Stick out your tongue and say 'Ah." commanded the doctor.

"Ah," obeyed the professor.

"It looks all right," nodded the doctor, "but why the postage stamp?"

"Oh, ho" said the professor. "So that's where I left it!"

FACULTY MEMBERS

(Reading left to right)

FIRST ROW—Miss Sears, Mrs. Freed, Mr. Jensen, Mrs. Brenneman, Miss Tredup, Mrs. Pate, Mr. Andrews, Mr. Buechele.

SECOND ROW—Mr. Henderson, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Neiswanger, Mrs. Vest, Mr. Bennington, Mrs. Bowman, Mr. Blair

THIRD ROW—Mr. Richardson, Mrs. McCarter, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Trueblood, Mrs. Boyd, Mr. Hooper.

FOURTH ROW—Mr. Wallick, Mr. Deal, Mr. Dobbins, Mr. Brenneman.

I CHANGED MY MIND

Mrs. Pate: What is your favorite state?
John Dee: Pennsylvania.
Mrs. Pate: Spell it, please.
John Dee: On second thought I guess I like Ohio best.

Mr. Hooper: How many bones do you have in your body.
Lewis A.: Nine hundred.
Mr. Hooper: That's a good many more than I have.
Lewis A.: Yeah, but I had sardines for lunch.

JUNIOR CLASS

SECOND ROW—Eva Dee Pershing, Rowena Burks, Marcile Howard, Helen Smiley, Helen Shake, Nancy Sinclair, Barbara McRoberts, Dorothy Dreiman.

THIRD ROW—Lois Corn, Jean Barnard, Mary Ellen Crane, Delores Resler, Joyce Hugunin, Janet Foglesong, Jeanette Humerickhouse.

FOURTH ROW—Mrs. Pate, Sue Hanna, Rosalee Williams, Marilyn Helm, Bessie McCarter, Betty Wade, Mary Lukens, Harvey Callahan, Freddie Faith.

The Junior Class started the school year with thirty-nine students. Lucille Foster, Floyd Harper and Albert Sims dropped out during the first semester. The remaining thirty-six students have worked hard at earning money both for the banquet and prom, and for a gift to the school. The class of '52 have the satisfaction of seeing their name on one of the glass bank boards in the new gym, the gift they made to the school while Juniors, instead of waiting until they are Seniors.

For the annual school carnival the Juniors won the king-queen contest. They earned their money by a magic show and a food sale before the carnival, and by a variety show, a faculty graveyard, and the sale of cokes the night of the carnival. Delores Resler and Jerry Neiswanger were crowned in an elaborate ceremony.

Some of the Juniors and their guests enjoyed a skating party at Bicknell during the first semester.

Class officers are Jerry Neiswanger, president; Richard Smiley, vice-president; Lois Corn, secretary; Mary Ellen Crane, treasurer. Mrs. Pate is the class sponsor.

The "big" night, banquet and prom night, is April 27th.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

These students withdrew from the Sophomore class, and were not in the picture: Clara Tipsword, Camilla Bateman and Marie Reynolds.

The Sophomore Class chose as their sponsor this year, Mr. Brenneman. One of the first things we did after electing officers was to attempt to raise money at the fall festival for the band and to make Yvonna Reed and Bus Franklin, King and Queen of this annual event. We were unsuccessful in doing the latter but did finish third in the contest.

Our year as a class has been quite uneventful. We enjoyed a skating party at Vincennes in December, and at the present time we are planning on another at the same place.

Some of our members made a name for themselves in the band contests, while others including Bob Boyd, Bruce Miller, Jim Adams, Roscoe Franklin and Hilbert Core played some on the varsity basket ball team. Bob was a regular.

Our officers for the year have been: President, Roscoe Franklin; vice-president, Karen Abrell; secretary-Treasurer, Carl Jensen; and reporter, Jerry Sibray.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The following students are transferred from Van Buren Township to this school: Victor Byrer, Marilyn Chestnut, Ray Chestnut, Bill Clark, Thelma Clark, Helen Dant, Pat Evans, Leveda Harper, Homer Kemp, Betty Mallette, Dwight Maust, Robert Myers, William Parsons, Charles Ramsey and Bob White. One student, Stanley Stone, comes to us from Greene County.

We have lost the following students by withdrawal or transfer to another school: Bill Clark, Barbara Kirk. Homer Kemp, Joe Melton, and Robert Myers. And we have gained one new student, George Harring, who came to us from Central City high school in Caraway, Arkansas.

Early in December we had our first party of the year, in the high school gym. It had been scheduled as a skating party at Bicknell, but weather conditions prevented the trip. Now we are going to have our skating party Friday, March 2, 1951.

These members of our class made all A's for the first semester: Pat Evans, John Poindexter, and Laura Russell.

Sue Bickley

NORMAN SIMS, Senior, Captain of the team. His size and determination made him a valuable asset to this year's squad. He will be missed next year as his pivot shot made him a constant source of worry to opposing guards.

IVES PRUETT, Junior Center and Co-Captain of the team. Although this was Pruett's first year to play varsity basketball, he early stamped himself as a man to be watched. His ability under the basket and rebounding work make us glad that he will be back again next year.

JERRY NEISWANGER, Junior Forward. Jerry was a good shot, who worked on tip-ins, and led the Bulldogs in scoring. This was Jerry's second year on the varsity and he has still another year to play.

RICHARD SMILEY, Junior Guard. Dick started slowly but soon developed into one of our best guards. His good ball handling and drives under the basket soon won him a first team position. He has another year to play.

BOB BOYD, Sophomore Guard. The long shot artist of the team, he also was a good fighter who came up from the second team. Bob was a good rebounder, and will probably improve greatly during the next two seasons.

JUNIOR COOK, Freshman Center. Junior was the big boy of the squad and learned to use his height to cause trouble for his guards. This was Cook's first year to play high school ball and much is expected from him during the next three years.

BRUCE MILLER, Sophomore Guard. Bruce showed a lot of speed this year. Bruce was very good on long shots, and we will probably see a lot of him in the next two years.

JIM ADAMS, Sophomore Forward, is noted for his under-basket shots. Although he hasn't seen much action this year, he will be in there next year to fight for the Bulldogs.

JACK BYRER, Junior Guard, was very fast and good on long two-handed shots. Jack was out for some time this year, but he always came back at the right times. We look forward to seeing him in action next year.

BUS FRANKLIN, Sophomore Guard, hasn't seen much action this year, but seemed always to be there when needed. We hope to see more of him next year.

ALBERT CALLAHAN, Student Manager, has been a great help to all the boys. He is well liked and has held this position for a year and a half. Albert is a Senior this year, and we are sorry to lose him.

MAX SINCLAIR, Student Manager, has been a very willing worker. This is his first year as manager, and he will likely hold the position next year.

THE BAND

The band, both in concert and marching, has figured as an important source of entertainment in our community, state, and even out of state in providing their services for public performances and parades.

This past summer found the band very busy filling engagements, and to keep up such a schedule, it was necessary for the students to devote a great deal of time to rehearsals.

June 9 the band played at Plainville at the Horse Show.

The week of June 19 proved to be a red letter period for the band. They took their first long trip to Fort Wayne as guests of the V. F. W. in their state convention. The climax of this occasion for the band was the winning of the V. F. W. trophy for the best marching band. Were we happy!

On August 6, the band was in the American Legion Parade at Jasonville, as the guest of the Seventh District Legion Committee.

August 7 the band journeyed to Paoli to head the parade in their Centennial celebration exercises.

August 17, 18, 19, the band played five concerts and gave one marching demonstration at the Old Settlers Picnic.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars took the band to Chicago the week of August 21 to participate in the V. F. W. National Convention parade. This was the largest parade in which the band had ever appeared. There were one hundred musical organizations in the parade and Odon was one of the three bands rating their pictures in the Chicago papers. This will always be remembered by the students.

September 6 and 7 found the band parading at the Indiana State Fair. On September 6 the band just missed second place award in the High School Day State Fair Marching Contest by one point. On September 7 the band was awarded the first place in the Farmer's Day, Indiana State Marching Contest.

The band was again invited, for the second year, to appear on the opening day of Monroe County Fall Festival on September 15, at Ellettsville.

On October 17, the band appeared in Washington at a political meeting.

The annual Hallowe'en activities were held on October 31, on the streets of Odon with the band providing part of the entertainment.

For the past two years the band has appeared at different colleges and universities to put on half time band shows. Invitations were extended again this year, but on account of schedule, it was decided to attend only one this fall which was held at Indiana University on November 18. This was the first appearance of our band at Indiana.

It should be noted that the band marching down the basketball floor, led by three prancing majorettes, has provided the main interest at half-time for our basketball fans. From the stirring march-time music of the band, the intricate baton twirling of the majorettes, and the ingenious formation of the band members, the basketball crowds have derived added entertainment and enthusiasm for high school sports.

Odon high school is well known for the special interest it assumes in students who are musically talented. Realizing that each and every one of the students has a few whistling and rhythmic foot-tapping tendencies, the school wishes to develop these abilities to the fullest extent, and at the same time to give the less musically inclined the benefit of listening pleasure. With this in mind, the music department caters to the musical aptitude of the students, by providing training in vocal work under the direction of Miss Shirley Tredup and band work under Mr. Raymond Blair.

Each year the band and choir enter several contests and always manage to rank high in district and state contests. Also in musical competition, many of Odon's students capture firsts and seconds for their vocal and instrumental solos and ensembles in state competition.

There were five first division winners in the state solo and ensemble contest this year. They are as follow:

Barbara Doolin—Tenor Saxophone Solo.

Bob Boyd—BBflat Bass Solo.

Nancy Stickles—Student Conduction of Band.

Karen Abrell—Soprano Solo (vocal).

Brass Sextet—Hilda Aishe, Charles Bunch, Bob Boyd, Shirley Guthrie, Joe Humerickhouse, and Sherman McClellan.

Two modern youngsters were discussing the subject of piggy banks.

"I think it's childish to save money that way," was little Mary's firm opinion.

"I do, too," Annie agreed. "And I believe also that it encourages children to become misers."

"And that's not the worst of it," Mary added. "It turns parents into bank robbers."

GLEE CLUB

ROW 2—Karen Abrell, Sue Boardman, Delores Resler, Lillian Arven, Nancy Humerickhouse, Jeannie Barnard, Mary Crane, Sue Humerickhouse, Laura Russell, Pat Evans, Lois Corn, Mary Sims.

When the pastor of a Scottish church finished his sermon, he gave a few minutes to one of the brothers to say a few words on his pet subject—prohibition.

"Brethern," said the prohibitionist, "if I had all the whisky, brandy, and champagne in the world, I would fling it all into the River Clyde."

He sat down and in the pause that followed the parson, himself an enemy of prohibition, arose.

"We shall conclude," he said, "by singing Hymn 157, 'Shall We Cather at the River?' "

CLASS SONG

(To the Tune of "The Thing")

As we started into school in the fall of '47,
We all were green as green could be, all 32 and 11,
And when Mr. Buechele looked at us he began to scream,
(Repeat) Oh, you'll never get out of this - - - until you're on the beam.

And so we looked right back at him, and gave him a great big bow,
So determined among ourselves, that we made a solemn vow,
We'd lead the Odon High School in everything they do,
(Repeat) Oh, We'll get out of this - - - with lots of honor too.

We walked into our class one day as happy as could be,
We handed Mrs. Pate our themes, and though that she'd be pleased,
She looked at them, then looked at us and this is what she said,
(Repeat) Oh, you'll never get out of this - - - unless you are dead.

So now we are Senoirs in the Class of '51,
We've enjoyed every bit of it, and I'm sure we've had our fun,
This goes to show to everyone that we are really swell,
(Repeat) 'Cause we've gotten out of the - - - and did it very well.

CORRECT

Mr. Jensen: What insect lives on the least food?

Bright boy (Norman Sims): The moth, it eats holes.

YELL LEADERS

Delores Resler, Nancy Sinclair, and Hilda Aishe

We were very fortunate this season in making a good choice of cheer leaders. The girls were always working and doing all they could to make us proud of them. They kept our howling host at its best and made a very definite contribution to the success of the activities of the Student Booster Club. Delores and Nancy are Juniors and Hilda is a Senior.

All of us have appreciated the fine work which came about as a result of natural ability together with long hours of practice. We know that the yell leaders contributed their share toward making the Bulldogs a winning team this year.

Down near Sumter, South Carolina, an energetic young salesman recently spent an entire morning trying to sell old Josiah Crabtree a motor bike.

"Ain't no use arguing, young fellow," he finally said. "If I had one, I might fall off and break my neck. Besides, I would rather put the money in a good milk cow."

"But think," persisted the youth, "how silly you'd look trying to ride a cow down to the village."

"Maybe so," Josiah admitted, "but I would look a heap more foolish tryin' to milk one of your motor bikes."

GRUMBLER

After having attended Odon High School for twelve years, we, the Seniors of 1951, wish to take this opportunity to blow our top, so to speak.

We have had to sit in hard wooden chairs; we think that it is about time for the school to buy rocking chairs upholstered in plush, and we should have at least three periods a day to sing, dance, and watch a six foot television that should be installed in front of the assembly. Also we think juke boxes should be stalled in all school busses.

The English requirement of three years should be lowered to three minutes a day with a different teacher each day.

We, the Seniors, think that all teachers should address us as Miss or Mr.; also all Seniors should have the privilege of getting up and walking out of boring classes—such as English.

Mrs. Pate should be required to invite the Seniors to her house at least once a week to watch television instead of telling us about it in class every day.

The Seniors should be given an answer book to all of their subjects so there would be no taxing of our mental capacity.

Another thing that the senior class feels that it should voice its sentiments against is the buying of text books. For twelve years we have paid out perfectly good cash for books. Why could we not dispense with this practice in our senior year? We have learned from good sources that teachers who teach only textbooks are not rated very high so we believe that teachers would be glad to furnish their own material. Perhaps the best point in the whole idea, however, is that although we buy the books we never have them when we get to class because we lose them or somebody steals them or what is worse, somebody hides them. Besides when we appear in class without our books, the teacher gets angry, thereby causing grey hair or even shortening her life.

An innovation which we think would add very much to the dignity and happiness of the senior class would be a large mirror extending the full front of a special classroom for seniors only. We believe that we are justified in asking for this for different reasons. In the first place think how much it would add to our aesthetic sense to be able to gaze at beautiful youth (ourselves if you please) rather than always to be confronted with gray hair, or no hair at all, sagging jaws, crow's feet, false teeth, not to mention the scowls and frowns of the ever present teacher. So far as we have been informed, school boards do not consider good looks and youth important qualifications of teachers when they hire them. (Maybe they should.)

In the second place a mirror in the front of the room would save our time and energy in case we wanted to gaze lovingly at a certain heart throb. Even a sly wink could be more easily carried on without the teacher worrying about it and without any turning around on our part. In this way we would save much needed energy and the teacher's "sweet" disposition. We believe that a classroom of this kind would not only be an incentive for students to strive to become dignified seniors but also be a good reason for teachers to look forward to teaching seniors.

Now that we have had our say about the school, we must at least say two good things about it: We think the new gymnasium is wonderful and we are glad that we are leaving high school!

Sue Clark,
Dick Streepy,
John York

RIGHT

Mr. Hooper: Co-operation would solve most of our problems.

Almeda Brummett: You're right, freckles would make a nice tan if they would get together.

AHEAD OF TIME

Derald H.: How does that watch run that I gave you?
Barb McRoberts: Fine, it does an hour in fifty minutes.

Ray Tarvin: "Don't you know better than to point an empty rifle at me?"

Dick P.: "But it isn't empty, sir."

Mrs. Blair: "There was a terrible thunder and lightning storm last night."

Mr. Blair: "Oh, there was, was there? Then why didn't you wake me up? You know I can't sleep when it thunders!"

Mrs. Pate: I'm going to speak on liars today. How many of you have read the 25th chapter on the text? (All hands up. No 25th chapter.)

Mr. Jensen: If I dropped this coin in this bottle of acid would it dissolve?

Robert M.: No.

Mr. Jensen: You're pretty sure of yourself.

Robert: If it would, you wouldn't drop it in.

JOKES

"Young man," called a proud parent to a boy in the hall of school, "will you call my son, Reginald Horace de Voort Vanderwort III, for me?"

"Yes ma'am," the boy replied, and then called, "Hey, Butch, your mother wants you."

A deacon in the local church was going to the city and agreed to purchase a new sign to be hung in front of the church. He lost the sheet of paper on which he had put the motto and dimensions, so he wired his wife:

"Send motto and dimensions."

An hour later the Western Union girl fell in a dead faint when she received the reply. The message read: "Unto Us a Child is Born, 6 feet long and 2 feet wide."

The bride had just served her first meal in her new home. "What will I get," she asked, "if I cook a dinner like this every night?"

Replied her husband gloomily, "My insurance, no doubt."

Two morons were putting siding on a house. One kept reaching into the pocket of his carpenter's apron, looking at the nails closely and throwing quite a few away.

"Why are you throwing those nails away?" the other moron asked.

"Because they have the head on the wrong end."

"Don't be silly," said his colleague. "Those are for the other side of the house."

John D. York: There was a large crowd at church today. Henry Ford was there.

Mother: Oh, he was?

John: I guess, he was, his car was out front.

Mary Alice was driving along a country highway in her automobile when she noticed two men climbing a telephone pole a short distance ahead. She turned to Mr. Buechele in disgust and said: "Those men are fools. They probably think I never drove a car before."

Dick P.: This salad tastes funny, did you wash it?

Nancy S.: Yes, even with soap.

Rose Williams: Do you file your fingernails?

Rosalie Holland: "No, I throw them away."

Miss Tredup: Can you carry a tune?

Louis: Certainly.

Miss Tredup: Well, carry the one you just finished out into the backyard and bury it.

JOKES

SCHOOL DAZE

Dad: Son, who is the laziest person in your class?

Charles Bunch: I don't know.

Dad: No? Well, when all the others are busy writing or studying, who sits there watching the rest instead of working?

Charles B.: The teacher.

Bobbie Pershing: When I get married I am going to treat my husband like a God.

Emily Gee: How's that?

Bobbie P.: Give him three burnt offerings every day.

"Billy Seneff," inquired the teacher, "can you tell me where the Red Sea is?"

"Yes," answered Billy. "It's on the third line of my report card."

MUCH BETTER

Leroy T.: Dad, can I have a bike?

Dad: You're too old to be asking for a bike.

Leroy: I guess you're right, make it a car.

What did the picture say to the wall?

First they frame me, then they hang me.

WHOOPS

Dick S.: I don't like folks to see the place where my loose tooth has been, but I can't keep my mouth shut tight because I like to grin.

WELL - - - -

Floretta H.: There's a mouse in the room, I hear him squeaking.

Robert M.: Well, what do you want me to do, catch him and oil him.

GOOD REASON

Carl Jensen: Pop, may I have a dollar to go window shopping?

Nip: Why do you need money to go window shopping?

Carl J.: Well, it's Mr. Buechele's window I'm shopping for!
